The Coliseum story

Coliseum is famous for our Hainanese-Western cuisine which we have served since 1921. This style of cuisine was originally developed by Hainanese cooks for the British expat community stationed in Malaysia during the colonial era.

Coliseum's Hainanese cooks, who hailed from Hainan island in Southern China, were adept at acquiring British and western culinary skills and preparing western style cuisine including soups, steaks and desserts but with a local touch.

Coliseum was founded in 1921 with its first restaurant on Jalan Tuanku Abdul Rahman (then known as Batu Road) in Kuala Lumpur and is still operating at the same location 97 years later. We are proud to see that Coliseum remains a part of Malaysia's historical legacy.

Coliseum has witnessed the growth of Kuala Lumpur from its colonial roots to the metropolis it is today. In the span of almost a century, Coliseum has hosted an array of diners including local and foreign visitors, dignitaries, celebrities and families.

To this day, Coliseum continues to serve our famous Hainanese-Western dishes such as Ox-Tail Soup, Baked Crab, Sizzling Steak, Hainanese Chicken Chop, Grilled Black Pepper Chicken and Lamb Shank cooked using our traditional Coliseum recipes. Our Hainanese Toast served with butter or kaya are also renowned.

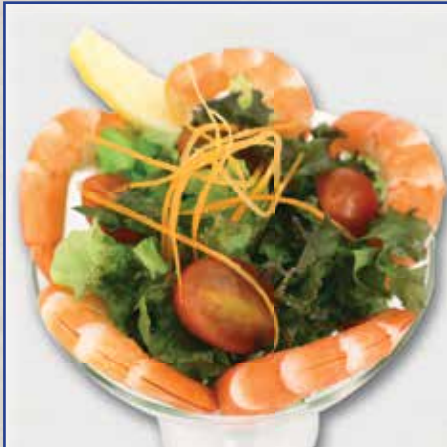

Coliseum's signature Asian dishes with a Hainanese twist include Hainanese Fried Mee, Spicy Fried Mee Mamak and Coliseum Fried Rice.

Favorite Coliseum desserts with a Hainanese touch include Fried Ice Cream, Caramel Custard Pudding and Banana Fritters with Vanilla Ice Cream.

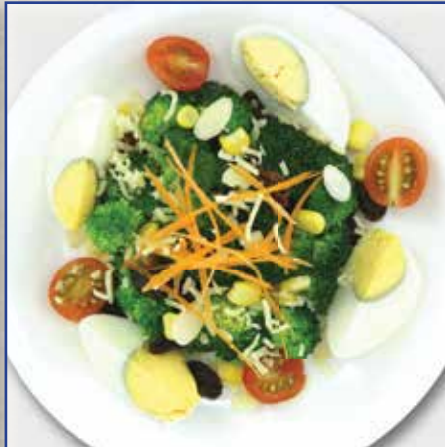

Proud of our distinctive heritage and unique history, we thank you for your patronage and look forward to welcoming you to our centenary celebrations in 2021!
